

Starting Monday, February 23, Stratford Library will be undergoing construction and part of the building will be closed.

This work, which is scheduled to end in June, will take place in the section of the library which houses Adult and Teen services; including the Adult fiction and nonfiction collections, computer lab, study rooms, the Conference Room and the Board Room.

During this time, there will be no access to that part of the library, and there will be no public seating or study space for adults. Please visit neighboring town libraries for study space.

Computer use will be very limited. There will be 3 one-hour computers for adults to use. Computer use will be limited to one session per day (no exceptions). There will also be a 15-minute express computer available (once per day). Please consider visiting neighboring town libraries if you need to use the computers.

- Children's Department will be open and business as usual.
- Teen Department will be open in a temporary space (Lovell Room), most programs and all collections will be available.
- Reference/Adult Services will be operating in the lobby where they can help with questions, interlibrary loans, printing, computers, etc.
- There will be a very limited selection of fiction, nonfiction, and biographies in the lobby.
- New fiction, new nonfiction, express books, large print, graphic novels, and dvds will still be available in the lobby.
- Printing, scanning, faxing, and copying services will be available in the lobby.
- No study space or public seating for adults.
- Very limited computer use for adults.
- Limited programs for adults.

We thank you for your patience and can't wait to show you the renovated space when we reopen.

See other side for list of neighboring town libraries and hours. You can use your Stratford Library card at any public library in Connecticut.
